

Day 39

Create A Tech Club

Don't have time to devote to a book club or even an article club? How about a tech tool club? Choose an app, website, or other tech tool to explore with colleagues. Study it, read about it, experiment with it as a group, and then try it with your students. Reconvene every week or so to provide feedback, updates, reviews, and tips for implementation.

Want ideas for getting started? Try these popular sites and tools:

- ★ Formative (goformative.com)
- ★ Noisli (www.noisli.com)
- ★ Tiki-Toki (www.tiki-toki.com)
- ★ Google Cardboard (vr.google.com/cardboard)
- ★ Ning (www.ning.com)
- ★ e-Pals (www.epals.com)
- ★ emaze (www.emaze.com)
- ★ Write About (www.writeabout.com)
- ★ Versal (www.versal.com)
- ★ StoryboardThat (www.storyboardthat.com)
- ★ CueThink (www.cuethink.com)
- ★ Virtual Nerd (www.virtualnerd.com)
- ★ Classkick (www.classkick.com)
- ★ Flipgrid (www.flipgrid.com)